

SERINALE ® 500 50 SC

FACT SHEET

Product Type: Fungicide

Active ingredient: Carbendazim

Chemical composition: Methyl-2-benzimidazoyl carbamate

Concentration and Formulation: 500 g/l SC (Concentrated Solution)

Mode of action: Systemic - curative

MAG Registration Number: 3640

Available sizes: 100 cc, 225 cc, 1 L, 5 L and 19 L.

Main characteristics:

SERINALE-500 50 SC, is a systemic fungicide, which is transported inside the plant providing protective and curative action, exerting its effect on fungi and to remain for some time in the tissues prevents infections, because it inhibits cell division, affecting the growth or development of fungi and their structures.

Crops to be treated:

Avocado (Persea americana), Rice (Oryza sativa), Banana (Musa sp.), Coffee (Coffea arabica), Citrus (Citrus sp.), Cucurbitaceae (Cucumis sp.), Celery (Apium graveolens), Chile (Capsicum sp.), Crucíferas (Brassica sp.), Lettuce (Lactuca sativa), Pineapple (Ananas comosus), Ornamentales, Flowers, Fruit trees.

Dose:

1 L/ 200 L of water, 2 L per hectare.

Period of re-entry to the treated area:

2 Hours

Interval between last application and harvest:

8 days

Compatibility:

It is compatible with commonly used pesticides. It is not phytotoxic, in the recommended plant species, when applied according to the instructions on the label to the pamphlet.

Precautions:

May cause skin irritation, so avoid contact with skin, eyes and clothing. Harmful if swallowed or inhaled. For handling, use complete protective equipment: protective gloves, coveralls, boots, face protection mask. Do not eat, smoke or drink during handling.